

* With the migration to NMCI, some officers may have fallen from the People Talk Distribution List. Please forward this to as many officers as possible in your AOR ****

1. TAD OPPORTUNITIES: The following billets are available for immediate fill. The Afghanistan and Iraq billets had officers identified, but unforeseen circumstances require that they be advertised and filled again. If you have previously expressed interest, and are still interested and available, please contact the POC.

a. Afghanistan Ministry of Defense: O5/O4 JAG (male) to relieve CDR Chris Jung, supporting the Afghan National Army CFC-Afghanistan CJTF 180. The officer must hold a secret clearance and be available to report in September for 179 days. The position is designed to assist in the development of the legal department in the Afghanistan Ministry of Defense (MOD) and to act as the primary contact with MOD legal staff. The selected officer will also mentor and provide necessary legal support as well as providing the necessary legal expertise in staffing and dividing specific areas of duties within the newly created legal division of the MOD. Interested officers should contact CAPT Frank Carber.

b. Guantanamo Bay Naval Base, Cuba: O5/O6 JAG to relieve incumbent Navy JAG assigned to the Office of Combatant Review Status Tribunals. The officer must hold a secret clearance with eligibility for an interim, one-time access, Top Secret clearance. Individual needs to be available to report in early October for approximately 120 days. Interested officers should contact CAPT Frank Carber.

c. Central Criminal Court of Iraq/Joint Service Law Enforcement Team/Detainee Ops: One O3 JAG needed to report in September. The officer will assist Multi-National Force Iraq's (MNF-I) continuing efforts in supporting investigative and prosecution teams for the Central Criminal Court of Iraq, an Iraqi run judicial forum exclusively using Iraqi judges, laws and procedures. As an investigative team leader, the JAG may be forward deployed to one of the various Major Support Commands (MSC) in order to directly support investigations of attacks against Coalition Forces and to facilitate prosecution at the Central Criminal Court. The JAG may be based in Baghdad to review cases from the field teams, arrange for witness transportation, prepare cases for prosecution and present these cases to the Central Criminal Court of Iraq through verdict and appeal. Currently there are hundreds of cases in the prosecution cycle. The position requires extensive leadership skills, and a willingness to work independently in an oftentimes austere work environment. Previous experience in joint-operations is a plus. Interested officers should contact LCDR Jim Protin.

d. Criminal Investigation Task Force (CITF): One O3 JAG needed to report ASAP to Ft Belvoir, VA. The JAG responsibilities include providing advice and reports to U.S. Army and Office of Military Commissions regarding commission investigations.

The JAG opportunities include briefing senior JAGs, traveling out of country and also liaison with DoD commands, USA commands, US federal agencies and international law enforcement agencies. Travel out of country is optional and may also include small arms familiarization. Interested officers should contact LCDR Tierney Carlos
